

"Building my new home was a great experience with the help of Ed Wright. Ed was always willing to make changes to incorporate my ideas while keeping me within my budget. As a result I have a home I love and the friendship of Ed and his wife Lisa.

— Mrs. Jo Butts

"Our success is based on a commitment to integrity, professionalism and quality." Detailed management of every aspect of the construction process, in addition to quality products, give customers outstanding results. We're proud of the many friends who have entrusted us with their most important investment — their home."

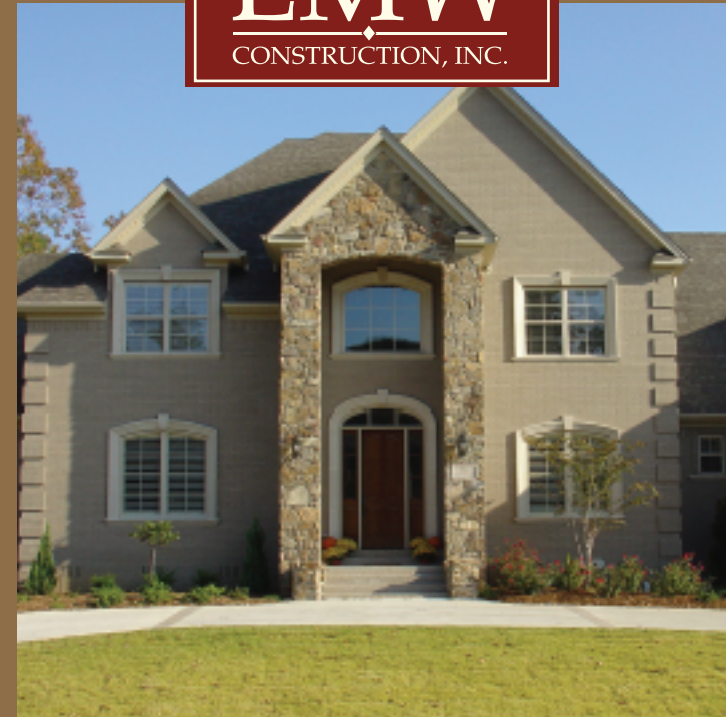

— Ed Wright

EMW Construction welcomes your inquiries and looks forward to having you and your family as an EMW homeowner.
